Where and What is Inini?

- Inini was an inland territory of French Guiana, administered separately between 6 June 1930 and 19 March 1946, after which all of French Guiana became a department of France. The territory remained governed as a special entity, until 17 March 1969 when it was dissolved into communes, and subject to regular government.

What time is it? Or legend of wandering heads.

#26??? Tahiti

- Postage stamps of the Territory of French Tahiti (later French Polynesia) began with general French Colonies issues in 1862, with specific "TAHITI" overprints appearing in 1882. The early, rare overprints of 1893 are highly prized, while later, colorful issues from 1934 to 1958 depict local scenes, including the iconic 1955 "Girl of Bora Bora" stamp.
- 1893 Overprints: Rare, hand-stamped, or typeset "TAHITI" overprints on "Navigation and Commerce" issues.
